

Ascentium

The Experience Agency™

Ascentium delivers unmatched user experiences and innovative business solutions by fusing consultative insight, inspired creative chops, and technological wizardry. We create multichannel connections between brands and customers and help our clients fully, profitably engage a digitized, mobilized world. In 2009, Forrester Research singled out Ascentium for attaining the “highest client satisfaction” on the Forrester Wave™ of Top Interactive Agencies. We serve some of the world’s top brands from our offices in Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles, and London. For more information visit www.ascentium.com.

Services

Brand Engagement

Through the conception, creation, and development of rich user experiences, Ascentium can launch a brand, revive a classic, or adapt brand experiences to new channels and devices.

Trans-Media/Device

As new marketing channels continue to multiply, Ascentium helps companies adapt, find the perfect mix of mediums, and great user experiences on any platform, device, or channel.

Social/Community

Ascentium researches and listens to what customers are saying, then helps companies join the conversation with meaningful, on-brand communications and content.

Sustainable Relationships

Ascentium helps companies nurture honest and mutually beneficial long-term customer relationships.

Customer Intelligence

Ascentium uses traditional and digital research methods to collect and analyze customer data and provide you the big-picture view you need to act with intelligence.
